

As a resident of the State of Indiana I am extremely happy with the current state "No Call" statute. Its implementation has had a positive impact on my personal life by freeing me from numerous unwelcome interruptions.